

Student Government Association

Thursday, September 26th

C101

3:00-4:00pm

I. Call to Order 3:03pm

II. Attendees: Kristen Creighton, Matthew Gregory, Leo Thibault, Valerie Leishman, Marilyn Gardner, Cody Garcia-Blalock

III. Approval of Minutes:

A. Minutes from Summer Meetings

1. Minutes are accessed through E-learning on the Campus Life tab

IV. President's Report

A. Fundraiser/ Apparel Pop-Up Shop

1. Goal: To start in October
 2. Apparel for different majors on campus
- Valerie spoke about the time frame of the ordering; we would receive the sweatshirts about 2-3 weeks after order is placed.
 - Kristen brought up how the students will pay for these items; brought up past pop-up shops and the system used
 - Matthew spoke to Kate Dwyer about previous pop-up shops; they found extra sizes were left over. Kate's suggestion was to have a pay-ahead system
 - Dominique brings up that the larger the size of the item the higher the price
 - Payment options - possibly the Square, attach to phone or iPad. They are affordable and would be the easiest way of payment
 - Adam researched the "square" - the square takes 10 cents per transaction
 - If students want their item personalized, there are places that will do just embroidering

B. Bulletin Board

1. Ideas from students: events, volunteer opportunities
- Kayla will be making the bulletin board within the next week. There is now a box with sticky notes for students to give us feedback on opportunities they would be interested in

C. Calusa Marketing

1. Spoke with a representative on Sept. 19th
- Dominique explains Calusa Marketing- no minimum amount of memberships $25/year

D. Lean Box

1. Spoke with a representative back in August
- Keep track of what is in most often, or what runs out fast. Let the representative know which kind of items students would like in the box

E. Hope Walks- Newton Wellesley Hospital

1. Signup sheet on bulletin board
- Kayla brings up volunteer opportunities at NWH Sunday Oct. 6th
 - Signup sheet is on the bulletin board, along with instructions on SGA social media
 - Discount for college students
 - Leo speaks about his experience in the past with volunteering and has plenty of resources and opportunities

- Marilyn suggests to make our volunteering health related and to make connections with others, staff, faculty, students & community: example Saint Mary's Center for Women and Children
- Cody suggests a community blood pressure clinic

V. Unfinished Business

VI. New Business

- Marilyn mentions the upcoming mentorship program
- Dominique has prior experience with this and notes that she was a peer mentor in high school

VII. Action Items

- A. SGA Pop Up Shop
- B. Improve marketing of SGA
 1. Currently on: Facebook and IAmLaboure app
- C. Lights on campus- Speak with Public Safety
- D. Partner with SNA on events/programs
- E. Dominique: Send out meeting minutes
- F. SGA Mission and Vision statement/Constitution
- G. Next bulletin board: Mid October
